ARRESTED MARIN CASE

John Hart Believed to Know Something of Missing Boy.

HE WAS SEEN NEAR FARM

Search For Body of Boy Continues, But Not the Slightest Clue Has Been Found—No Reward Has Been Offered.

Wilmington, Del., March 9.—A man giving the name of John Hart, a fisherman, of Camden, N. J., was arrested at New Castle on suspicion of knowing of the disappearance of Horace Marvin, 4-year-old child of Dr. Marvin. He has lived for about four months in a shack on the Murderkill creek, near Kitts Hammock. He left in a sloop last Monday morning about 5:30, and passed Kitts Hammock about 8 o'clock, arriving at New Castle on Tuesday. Persons at Kitts Hammock said that when the boat passed there were two persons in the boat. When the boat reached New Castle Hart was the only occupant, and nothing was found.

Fruitless Search For Child.
Dover, March 9.—After another day's search, in which the fields, haystacks and long grass were raked over and over, with the faint hope of discovering the body of Horace Marvin, who disappeared suddenly and mysteriously on Monday last, from the Marvin farm, near the bay shore, no clues were discovered which would in any way lead to the discovery of the child. There is now no longer any doubt in the minds of the family or officers that the child was kidnapped, and every move will be made on that theory by the state officers.

The haystack around which many think may hang the solution of the boy's fate was again searched, but nothing was discovered which would in any way point to his being imbedded under the straw. The appearance of the two strange men on the farm was again mentioned by a neighbor, Farmer Pleasanton, who saw the men, but did not recognize them as being native Delawareans, as they were strangers. When last seen by Mr. Pleasanton, they were heading for the Marvin farm, and were near one of the ditches close to the road leading from the barn to the marsh.

The report that the doctor had offered a reward of $20,000 is denied by him, he stating that it was his belief that such a move would be wholly inadvisable until all other means to locate the child have been exhausted. Little Horace was playing with his 7-year-old brother John and Mr. Standish's small daughter Rose in the yard of the Marvin home when he disappeared. Rose had gone into the house for a moment, while John had run to a little distance. When they returned to the spot where they had left Horace, no trace of him could be found.

Grief over the child's loss is augmented by the fact that his mother died just three months ago. Horace, the youngest of her three children, was cherished by his grandmother, Mrs. Swift, as the very apple of her eye. Already stricken by her daughter's death, the aged woman has been completely prostrated by her grandson's disappearance.

CHEERED REED SMOOT
Big Crowd With Band Welcomed Senator Home.

Provo, Utah, March 9.—When Senator Reed Smoot and party arrived here from Washington, many citizens, a large delegation of students from Brigham Young University and a brass band were on hand to welcome the senator. The Senator and Mrs. Smoot were taken to the university, where an informal reception was held. Senator Smoot made a speech, in which he said that the action of the United States senate, declaring him entitled to his seat, was a victory for the nation, for the state and for religious liberty. He declared that the attacks upon him had come from a few disappointed individuals.

Lee in the form of an endowment of a chair of American history at the university in accordance with the suggestion made by President Roosevelt in his recent letter to the subject.

Mexican Liner Ashore.
Halifax, N. S., March 9.—The Mexican liner, Atamora, is reported ashore on the ledge off Louisbourg, C. B. The Sokoto left Halifax on Wednesday for Louisbourg to take on board 1500 tons of coal, after which was to return to this port to load a cargo for Havana and Mexican ports.

JEROME TO CALL EVELYN

Sudden Resting of Defense Finds Prosecution Unprepared.

PRISONER'S WIFE SUBPOENAED

District Attorney Preparing List of Witnesses for Rebuttal—The Case May Go to the Jury By Friday Afternoon.

New York, March 9.—The defense in the Thaw case rested immediately after the convening of court, and an adjournment thereupon was ordered until Monday morning. District Attorney Jerome said that while he had been informally notified of the changed plans of the defendant's counsel, he had come to court expecting to be confronted by additional expert testimony as to Thaw's state of mind. His witnesses were not ready, he added, and it was upon this representation and with the freely granted consent of the defense that the adjournment was taken.

The court proceedings occupied less than five minutes, and District Attorney Jerome returned at once to his office and began preparing his campaign of rebuttal testimony. Almost his first move was to have a subpoena served upon Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, requiring her to produce in court any letters she may have in her possession written by Stanford White. The district attorney had May Mackenzie notified to be in court Monday prepared to go upon the witness stand. Miss Mackenzie had been under subpoena by the state ever since the trial began. She is the intimate friend of Thaw's wife, and during the first stages of the trial the two were inseparable.

It is also said that Mr. Jerome has summoned Mrs. J. J. Caine, of Boston, who already has testified for the defense. Among the other known witnesses for the state are Mrs. Bingham, of Pittsburgh, and Deemar, of Kittanning, Pa., the Thaw and Copley family physicians. The defense originally summoned these physicians, but Mr. Jerome has publicly stated that the doctors can give very important testimony which the defense has failed to develop. The prosecutor has stated in court that he will call as an expert Dr. Allen McName Hamilton, who at first was in the employ of Thaw's attorneys, but left the case when Thaw dismissed the firm of Black, Olcott, Grier & Bonyne, who were retained in his behalf by his mother's legal advisers. Drs. Austin Flint, Carlos MacDonald and William Mahon have been in the employ of the state ever since the Thaw trial began and have attended every session. They are prepared to testify at a moment's notice.

Just what District Attorney Jerome intends to prove, or will be allowed to prove in rebuttal, remains as deep a mystery as ever. The prosecutor himself is probably at a loss to know how far he can go in attacking Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's story, and in adducing evidence tending to contradict and discredit her. His plan of campaign may be entirely changed at any time by an adverse decision from Justice Fitzgerald. Mr. Dolmas, for the defense, undoubtedly will make Mr. Jerome's progress difficult by continued objections. The rules of evidence invoked in the Thaw case after murder trial in this jurisdiction, and it has been evident from the first that the attorneys on both sides have been feeling their way cautiously.

Howard Nesbit with the district attorney, and it is said he will be called to the stand to testify that his sister told him Thaw had treated her cruelly while abroad in 1904 because she again "would not tell lies about Stanford White." Mr. Jerome hopes by the brother to corroborate the testimony he expects to elicit from Abraham Hummel, the latter being under indictment at the present time for alleged subordination of perjury in the Dodge-Morse divorce tangled.

With all the witnesses here enumerated and many others under subpoena, Mr. Jerome adhered to his prediction that the case might be given to the jury by Friday.

MAY PART THAW AND WIFE
It is Rumored His Family Will Try to Separate Them.

New York, March 9.—There were many rumors current of a serious estrangement between the defendant's family and his wife, and of the report of desire of the former to bring about a separation of the young couple in the event of a verdict acquitting Thaw of the charge of murder. Young Howard Nesbit, the brother of Mrs. Harry Thaw, is quoted as saying: "The Countess of Yarmouth has said that she will not return to England until her brother and my sister have been separated. 'I am sure that if my sister knew of the plans which are being made against her she would assert herself at once, and not remain as passive as she has been so far.'"

It has also been a matter of comment that as two experts have declared Thaw to have been insane at the time of his marriage, the ceremony might be declared void and annulled. Under this rule the will and codicil, in which Mrs. Thaw is left the main portion of her husband's estate, are also void.

Do You Want to Know What You Swallow?

There is a growing sentiment in this country in favor of natural and wholesome food. It is but natural that one should have some interest in the composition of that which he or she is expected to swallow, whether it be food, drink or medicine.

Recognizing this growing disposition on the part of the public, and satisfied that the fallen reputation of his medicines, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., has taken upon him the forelock, as it were, and is publishing broadcast a list of all the ingredients entering into his leading medicines, the "Golden Medical Discovery," the popular invigorator, stomach tonic, blood purifier and heart regulator; also of his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, over-worked, broken-down, nervous and invalid women.

This bold and open-spoken movement on the part of Dr. Pierce, has, by showing exactly what his well-known medicines are composed of, completely disarmed all the harping critics who have heretofore unjustly attacked them. A little pamphlet has been compiled, from the standard medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, showing the strongest endorsements by leading medical writers of several ingredients which enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines. A copy of this little book is mailed free to any one desiring to learn more concerning the valuable, native medicinal plants which enter into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines. Address Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

ARCHIE IS MUCH BETTER

President's Son Rallies and Physicians Are Hopeful.

HE IS NOT YET OUT OF DANGER

Dr. Lambert Pointed Out to President That Diphtheria is a Treacherous Disease and Archie May Have Relapse Any Time.

Washington, March 9.—Archie Roosevelt is resting easy and the attending physicians are very hopeful of his recovery. Dr. Alexander Lambert, who was summoned from New York to take charge of the case, has informed the president that while the patient's condition is encouraging, he is not yet out of danger. Mr. Roosevelt was with his son for more than an hour Friday night. In his visits to the sick room the president takes every precaution against infection.

A consultation was held at the White House. It was attended by Drs. Lambert, Surgeon General Rixey and Assistant Surgeons R. M. Kennedy, W. C. Braisted and J. C. Pryor, of the navy. Dr. Lambert gave out this bulletin:

"The patient is resting comfortably. No complication has developed since Thursday, and his condition is as good as could be expected at this stage of the disease."

Secretary Loeb announced that Dr. Lambert probably would return to New York, but it was stated at the White House that he will not leave Washington until he is satisfied that Archie is wholly out of danger.

Dr. Lambert pointed out to the president that diphtheria is a treacherous disease and that Archie may at any time suffer a relapse. Although the president was awake most of Thursday night, he expressed a willingness to remain with Dr. Kennedy, who spent the night at Archie's bedside. Drs. Lambert and Rixey, however, urged the president to retire at his usual hour. Mrs. Roosevelt, who has remained almost constantly at her son's bedside since the first day of his illness, also retired after being assured by Dr. Lambert that he did not anticipate another change for the worse.

A telegram was received from the president's son, Theodore, Jr., asking about Archie's condition.

FREIGHT RATES RAISED.

Pennsylvania Announces New Schedule on Lake Grain Shipments.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 9.—Announcement was made by the Pennsylvania Railroad company of the new rates on lake grain shipments which will become effective with the opening of navigation on April 15. It is also announced that with the going into effect of the new rates, which are slightly higher than those which prevailed when lake navigation closed, the out-turn weights will no longer be guaranteed at the Atlantic seaboard. The grain will be weighed upon its arrival at these ports. Under the old guaranteeing of the out-turn weights, which was practically the cargo weight at Chicago or some other point, the railroad claims it was trusted through loss in drying out and shrinkage, since it had to make good the loss in weight under the guarantee.

The rates just agreed upon, which will go into effect at Buffalo on April 15, are as follows: To New York, Wheat, 54c; flax, 54c; rye, 54c; corn, 44c; barley, 44c; oats, 34c. To Philadelphia and Baltimore: Wheat, 52c; flax, 52c; rye, 49c; corn, 45c; barley, 45c; and oats, 35c.

The trunk line traffic officials have not arranged the commodity freight rates, but the rates on manufactured iron have been increased about 30 cents per ton.

Connecticut Court Draws Color Line.

Hartford, Conn., March 9.—The supreme court of the state has just handed down a decision to the effect that barbers in the state need not shave colored men. The decision was reached on an appeal from a superior court decision in Bridgeport by Henry H. Foulkner, a colored man, who brought suit against Thomas Solazzi, a barber of that city. Solazzi refused that his barber shop was not a place of public accommodation within the meaning of the law. The supreme court upholds that contention.
